

GUILLAUME DELVIGNE
SWAN
pendant lamp ●● 2013

A BRIGHT «PETIT RAT»

Swan is a large pendant lamp with smooth and curvy lines. Swan is made of an opalescent shade in blown glass floating above a chromed metal cone.

The shape was inspired by the figure of ballet dancers, with their puffy tutu surrounding a slender body.

The name Swan refers to one of the most famous ballets: Swan Lake.

The designer

Guillaume Delvigne is a French designer of the Nouvelle Vague. He worked for Marc Newson before he created his own studio in 2011 and applied his talent to fields as diverse as cooking appliances for Tefal, vases for Hermès, or conceptual design exhibited in the best Parisian galleries. His creations share a soft and subtle approach of materials.

He also designed other projects for La Chance : the Hal pendant lamp and the Toy vase.

La Chance

La Chance is a Paris based design company producing furniture, lighting, accessories, rugs and wallpaper with a strong and distinctive style. La Chance gives a contemporary interpretation of the ornamental and decorative French furniture tradition rooted in the Art Deco period. The creations of La Chance share a sophisticated, rich and singular design based on noble materials. It is a come back to a warm and uninhibited luxury, breaking away from cold and conceptual design. La Chance produces investment pieces that will get a patina for the future generations to keep enjoying this contemporary family furniture.
