BORGHESE

sofa ●● 2012

THE ICON

Borghese Sofa is a sculptural piece directly inspired and named after the pine trees of the Villa Borghese gardens in Roma.

The characteristic network of branches is translated as a graphic steel framework to support a trio of cushion.

The designer's preference for organic shapes readily translates as a standout modernist statement-piece.

The laser cut metal structure is assembled and welded by hand to replicate the network of branches of a tree, creating a soft landscape.
